

Novapex 2005 Palmares

Royal Philatelic Society of Canada

Gold, Silver and Bronze awards are presented to those entries which merit such recognition. These awards are for quality, therefore there can be more than one in each class. Recipients also receive a gold, silver or bronze lapel pin given by the club. Those exhibits marked with a (J) are from Junior exhibitors (Class 8).

Gold

John Eldridge - 1967-73 Centennial Issue, High Values

Michael Peach - Imperial Penny Postage

Michael Peach - British Postal Stationery Cutouts

Michael Peach - Postal Union Rate Cards - Victorian Britain

Marty Zelenietz - Papua & New Guinea Booklets

Dave Cooper, Sr - Mexico - Exporta Series

Hugh Rathbun - The Postal History of Annapolis Royal

Cliff Abram - A Man, A Ship, A Legacy (Nelson)

(J) Alexander Faulkner - Sports on Stamps

(J) Liam Parks - African Animals

Silver

John Eldridge - Fun in Collecting the 15 cent blue

Dave Cooper, Sr - U.K. Transatlantic Mail 1939-53

Jane Sodero - Postal Markings / Guysborough

Elizabeth Sodero - Slogan Cancels Admiral Era 1912-14

Michael Peach - The Penny Red Imperforate (GB) Cancellations

John Hurst - Newfoundland Publicity Issue 1929-31

Lorraine Rasmussen - Henry Hechler Memorabilia

Neil Bowlby - Centenary of the Red Cross

(J) Alexander Faulkner - Transportation on Stamps

Bronze

Carl Munden - Gone but not Forgotten - NL Outports

George MacKenzie - Covering Nova Scotia Place Names

George MacKenzie - The Story of Santa Claus

Major Awards

The Ken C MacDonald Postal History Award was awarded to Hugh Rathbun for his excellent gold exhibit The Postal History of Annapolis Royal.

The J Doug Allen Novice Award for "the best first-time winner of a Royal Philatelic Society of Canada award" during the annual show of the Nova Scotia Stamp Club was awarded to Lorraine Rasmussen's Henry Hechler Memorabilia. Henry Hechler was one of the most well known early members of the Nova Scotia Stamp Club.

The Nova Scotia Stamp Club Award may be presented to a member-contributor for outstanding contributions to the club and/or to the advancement of philately in Nova Scotia. After all of the work and effort expended by many members before, during & after the very successful ROYAL*2004*ROYALE various names were put forth, any of which would be very qualified. The committee selected Jeff Parks for his many efforts on the club's behalf, including being web master, assisting and then inheriting the newsletter, and various other areas.

The People's Choice Award To be announced on November 8
The Award for the most popular exhibit as determined by a vote by those who attend the exhibition.